Year 4 Football

On Wednesday afternoon, accompanied by Mrs Hipwell and Mrs Partington, Year 4 headed to Stanley High School to compete in the EFC Year 4 Tournament.

The team was made up of Jack Partington, Michael Hipwell and Lewis Buckley from 4MT, Tom Dudley, Zachary Bentham and Jack Fenny from 4JS and Harry Wilsea and Elliot Moor from 4B.

Our first match was against Our Lady of Lourdes which was a great starting match with Churchtown winning 1-0. Next came Kew Woods and after a strong battle against an excellent team we walked away with a 1-0 loss.

Farnborough was our third game and again after a hard fought match Churchtown came away with a respectable 2-2 draw after an amazing run by Lewis and a pass to Harry who headed it in. Our final game was against Kings Meadow and what a great finish to the tournament. Lewis and Zach played an amazing game scoring 2 goals each giving us a 4-1 win.

All the boys played brilliantly but a special mention goes to Tom Dudley who fought tirelessly in defence, to Michael Hipwell who did amazingly in goal and to Lewis Buckley and his scoring ability.

CHURCHTOWN'S BABY AND TODDLER GROUP

Lots of fun at group this week we printed with vegetables, threaded with fruit and made trains with the play dough. The children sang twinkle twinkle little star as part of our circle time. Baby group is 9am in the early years hall every Friday. Pop along and join the fun.
