

A Christmas Carol

'Tinygiants' performed sensationally for a second time at Churchtown in 'A Christmas Carol, keeping the children gripped with fright as the church bells clanged to the arrival of a miserable, 'Bah humbug' Mr. Scrooge! The ghosts of Christmas past, present and future presented themselves eerily around the stage telling the story of the frightful, callous behaviour of Mr. Ebenezer Scrooge.

A jovial audience from year 5 enjoyed seeing the novel, which they have been studying, turn to life on the stage.

Emily Blackhurst and Noah Grills commented, "It was funny, the stage setting was fabulous and I liked how the 3 characters took on more than one part. They acted it brilliantly and made you believe they really were the characters!" Noah continued, "I liked how they made 'twists from it that were different from the book! "
