Mascots At Everton Ladies Match On Sunday

Lucy, Isabella, Erin and Elisabeth all went as mascots to the ladies Everton match last Sunday. They had a fantastic time, they had their programme signed by the players and Everton won so they did lots of cheering!!

Things to do during half term

We hope everyone has a fantastic half term
If you're looking for something to do over the holiday here are some activities to keep you busy.

- Volunteer Activity Days at Botanic Gardens in Southport, 9.30am, 15 and 19 February.
- Volunteer Spring Cleans at Hesketh Park Specimen Garden, 10am, 16 February and The Stray in Southport, 10am, 18 February.
- Home Tweet Home (Bird Box Workshop) at Waterloo Seafront Gardens, 1pm, 18 February.
- Skate park events, Potters Barn in Southport, 5.30pm, 18 and 19 February.

Active Sefton are delivering another exciting Be Active programme of activities for children and young people age 3-16yrs, including the popular Football Academy, Dance Workshop, water sports at Crosby Lakeside Adventure Centre and Splash and Swim sessions at Dunes Splash World in Southport and much more. To find out more, you can visit the Be Active web page or contact the team at Active Sefton on 0151 288 6286.

For children and young people with special educational needs or disabilities (SEND), our Aiming High Short Breaks team have put together another fun packed array of things to do, from sensory play at Jake's Sensory World in Netherton Activity Centre through to days out, arts, crafts, baking and a Valentines Disco. You can contact the Aiming High Short Breaks team on 0151 288 6811.

There will be no "ssshhh" in Sefton's libraries as they continue to be a hive of activity over half-term. The ever popular Story and Rhyme Time sessions will be taking place at:

- Formby Library, 10.30am (Rhyme Time) and 2.15pm (Story Time), 15 February.
- Crosby Library, 2.10pm, 18 February (Story Time) and 2.10pm, 19 February (Rhyme Time).
- Meadows Library (Maghull), 10.30am and 2pm, 18 February.
- Southport Library, 10.30am, 16/17 February and 2pm, 18 February.

Formby will be hosting a Toddler Time, 10.30am, 18 February there will be drop-in craft sessions at Netherton and Southport libraries. 'Birds and Beasts' is taking place in Netherton all week, with packs available to visitors at the counter while Southport's theme is "Surprise!" and takes place 10.30am, 19 February.
